Grown
Friendships falling apart before our eyes
No one stops to even realize
We don't trust, we don't talk, only with our own
So many times our emotions were shown
Times have changed, we're not the same
There is no one to place the blame
We were so close, now worlds apart
Knowing this just breaks my heart
It won't be long and we'll go separate ways
Seeing each other will be unexpected days
Through all our laughter and our pain
We thought as friends we would remain
We were wrong, those days are past
We've began new friendships that might last
Growing apart is just not fair
But those burdens we must bear
We will live, we will go on
But those days we'll look upon
To remember the past, the times we shared
The times we talked, the times we cared
And even though we are apart
Those days will live in every heart

Two Stars Shine On and Off The Stage

Many of us have fallen in love with the story of Cinderella and Prince Charming living happily ever after. This year the fairy-tale story became a reality when two seniors from Heritage, Yolanda Davis and Dustin Harder captured the starring roles in The Pit and Balcony production of "Cinderella." The community show was put on December 11-23, and all fifteen shows were a sellout. "I was really happy and I was looking forward to the Cinderella play," said an enthusiastic Yolanda, about how she felt after earning one of the leading roles.

The play Cinderella was both unique and challenging at the same time. But through it all, the things learned and the experiences felt helped to make the play all the more successful. "I had to change costumes onstage, that was definitely a new experience for me," said Yolanda. "This was a different role from anything I had done before," said Dustin. Dustin explained that he usually performs the upbeat, tempo-dancing roles, while Cinderella's theme was more romantic and graceful. Being able to perform in different settings and roles, proves of how talented and versatile Yolanda and Dustin are as performers.

Both Yolanda and Dustin agree that the best part about Cinderella was being able to perform for the children. Many of whom were seeing the play for the first time and of introducing them to the opportunities and possibilities of theater and the performing arts. After high school, Yolanda plans to study voice or Music Theater in college, while Dustin will attend The American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York.

What are the memories that these senior actors will always remember? Dustin said it will be of "The experience I had had working with Yolanda and of growing with her as a performer since the eighth grade." "I will remember how when you perform a show, everyone comes together to make it work and of how people were affected by a performance," said Yolanda. Without a doubt, these two seniors have demonstrated that they are not only talented, but also compassionate and caring as well.

JUNIOR CLASSES OF 2000

Big Bird's Babies

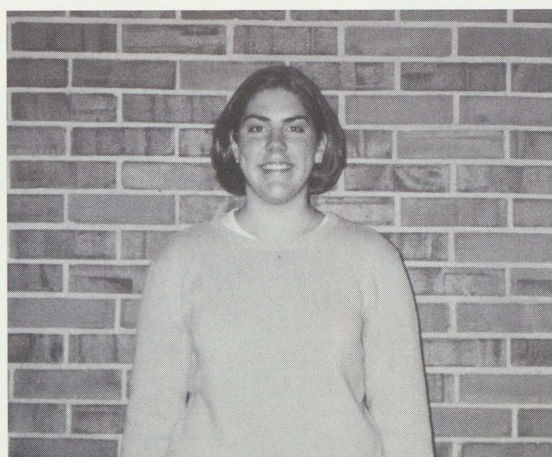

Big Bird's Babies aren't babies anymore. These upperclassmen began their year by creating a float for the Homecoming parade and participating in the Adopt-The-Highways program with the Senior class. The Junior class also had the huge responsibility of putting on Prom for the Seniors. Members of the Junior class council took their annual trip to Hartley Nature Center to participate in a leadership camp as well. Tina Choudhri commented about her class by saying, "We have a lot of hardworking people who are great at sports and involved in many other things at HHS." Juniors ended the year anxiously ready to become Seniors.

Kermit's Kids

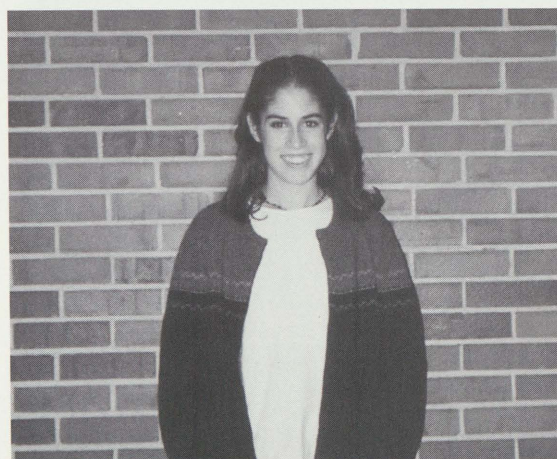

Kermit's Kids were off to a busy year. Sophomore class President Abby Lee's goal for the class was, "To get a lot of people involved and do more community service work." Lee led the class in participating in the Second Annual Day of Caring. The class cleaned and prepared the grounds of Hartley Nature Center for future visitors. The class of 2001 also topped off the first marking period by winning first place in the 1998 Homecoming float contest. The Sophomore Class Council was responsible for the first annual Valentine's Day dance at Heritage as well. The first class of the new millenium will never be forgotten for their positive impact on our school.

FRESHMEN CLASS OF 2002

Rainbow Bright's Brigade

The Rainbow Bright Brigade busted into their first year at Heritage with a positive attitude and a lot of enthusiasm. During Homecoming week, the Freshmen class participated in class competitions and showed off their unique float at the Homecoming parade. Their float theme was, "The Oz on Broadway." Class President, Alex Becker, said, "We worked hard together and did a good job on our float." The Freshmen class council also planned their first community service project in December to work in a soup kitchen for the needy. Another great achievement for the Class of 2002 was their undefeated football team. The whole school was extremely proud of the newcomers, and the Freshmen even made shirts to celebrate their victory. Freshmen may have been the young people of the school, but they had many achievements during the year to be proud of.

Math

When the word math is mentioned, most of us think of long, dreadfull hours of complicated formulas, theorems, and equations. Luckily for Heritage students, an extremely talented group of math teachers were here to help. No matter what math course taken, (Algebra, Geometry, Calculus, or others) students were guaranteed a good education. As quoted by Senior, Dennis Rogers, " The Pythagoream Theorem was the best thing I ever learned. It not only applies to math, but everyday life. I love all those x's and y's. They make me feel good about myself."

Attention Class!
Greg Treib informs his class about his latest bookreport

The famous "Grammar Cop" was once again present at Heritage. Each and everyone of Mrs. Hunter's AP English students knew all about grammar cops. Hunter's classes were just for Juniors and Seniors, and they became very involved. They casually "borrowed" signs, posters, ads, and anything else that had a grammar cop on it, with no intention of returning them. Mrs. Hunter's closet doors were covered in grammar cops collected by courageous students. Posters were not the only items taken by them, though. Seniors Kevin Kosanovich once took a funeral wreath from someone's gravesite at his uncle's funeral, because "funeral" was spelled incorrectly. Kevin also participated in a sneaky scam to steal a "Drive Thru Pharmacy" sign with Justin Stahl. The sign was a 3X5 piece of wood, with the word pharmacy spelled wrong. They succeeded in taking the sign and it sits in Mrs. Hunter's room forever. It must be true what people say, kids really will do anything for a grade.

Peer Counseling

Peer Counseling was a class that taught kids to use problem solving skills in everyday life. There were three levels of Peer Counseling. In Peer I, kids learned about themselves and how to deal maturely with their peers. In Peer II, students trained to be peer counselors. Peer III was not an actual class, but was offered to those students chosen to be peer counselors. Mrs. McLeod went through a long process to choose her counselors. The counselors had offices where students could talk with them. Students could come down to discuss any problems or concerns they had regarding friends, family, and other issues. Peer counseling students learned things that they can use for the rest of their lives. "By taking Peer I and Peer II, the most important thing I have learned is how to keep confidentiality and the importance of it," stated Junior Jessye Schuette.

The mind used to be a very confusing thing. Mrs. Rummler's Psychology students had a year full of studying why the human brain operates the way it does. They researched the function of the brain through their schoolwork and placements at different elementary schools. In working with students, they were able to study a wide range of behaviors and traits. Psychology students spent four days each week at their placements observing, interacting, and working with their kids. This experience was rewarding for both the Heritage students and the young children they worked with.

Newspaper

Problems? You bet! This year's Newspaper class was plagued with monotonous computer foul-ups, but still managed with what they had. With high spirits and optimistic outlooks, the newspaper class, lead by rookie teacher Mrs. Moore, trudged through the school year covering the controversial, the exciting, and the funny news that circulated the school. "This year was tough, we had many computer problems, but with our perserverance we managed to get by. I'm sure next year will be our pinnacle year for success!" commented Production Editor Ryan Sanford. Leaving their marks on the pages of a newspaper, these writers filled the minds of many staff and students here at Heritage.

Hard work, designing layouts, deadlines, photo cropping, and working together. This was what our yearbook class was all about. With only one returning staff member from last year, our class started the year off by learning the techniques of yearbook design. We quickly realized what teamwork was all about and how important it would be in our production. Over time, we perfected our photography, writing, and layout design skills. Most importantly though, we formed friendships that, like a yearbook, have produced memories that will last forever.

Two of the most popular classes this year at Heritage were Art and Photography. Students could choose courses ranging from Drawing and Silk Screening to Studio Art. They had a chance to show off their skills in drawing, sculpting, and painting. Photography gave students the chance to show off their good eye for picture taking. They also learned how to develop their own film in the dark room. Students who signed up for these classes had a variety of projects to complete and they found each to offer useful skills.

Science

The science classes were busy working on many interesting projects this past school year. The Biology III classes dissected fetal pigs as a class activity. Mrs. Bernum's Physics IV classes designed, built, and flew their own hot air balloons. The Chemistry II classes were happy experimenting with chemicals, which sometimes led to minor explosions. Overall, students worked hard preparing for their possible future careers as scientists.

Economics

Inside and outside of Heritage students showed their school spirit by sporting the apparel and products made by Heritage's own Economics classes. Mr. Collier and Ms. Lee's Economics classes were given the task of opening up a company of their own. Each class' creativity went to work as they came up with their own products to be made and sold to the student body and community. The new products sold during the school year included items that could be both worn or used. Just in time for the fall weather, Mr. Collier's class started selling baseball hats that could be worn to football games and other sport outings. It was a great way for audiences to show off their support for our team. Other students were also able to show off their snazzy blue and green , flannel boxers produced by Ms. Lee's class. Another big hit was the Spring break T-shirts. They were popular among the students who went on vacations. Overall, the Economics classes had great success in all of their sales.

Social Studies

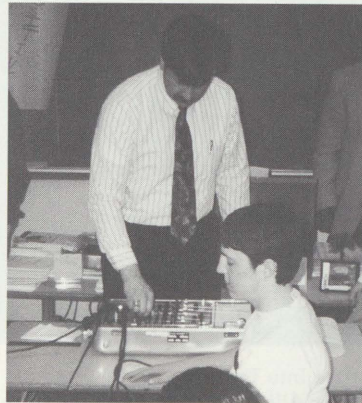

Need Some Help There?
Wendy Elliot attempts to give away some of her knowledge to Melissa Luplow.

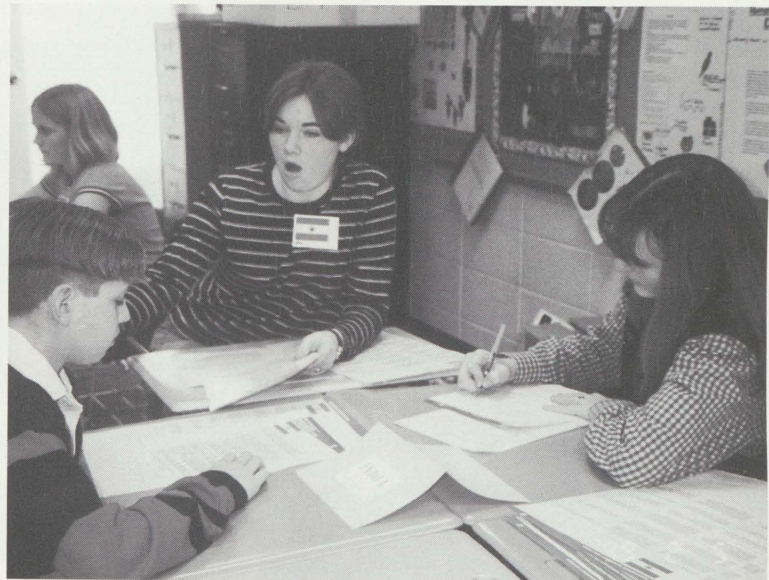

"It's hard enough to keep peace in the classroom, so it's hard to imagine how they keep peace among all the countries" commented Ashleigh Burke. Ms. Lee's Honors World Studies classes all participated in "Wildfire", a game which taught them the importance of world peace. The class divided into teams and then used the research they had collected from books, articles, and handouts to play along in this demonstration. Their purpose was to try to negotiate for peace and fewer nuclear weapons. After the negotiations between the teams took place, the students wrote a debriefing response about how they felt about the game.

Wood and Metal

Two of the "hands-on" classes that were offered here at Heritage included Wood and Metal classes. Both of these courses taught useful skills for students' futures. In Wood I, students became familiar with the machines by making several projects. They built shelves, boxes, and birdhouses. In Wood II, the students used skills they learned in Wood I and worked independently deciding which projects they were going to accomplish. Junior, Matt Jerome, had Wood II and worked on a T.V. stand for his individual project. In Metal class, students learned about different types of metal and how each type was useful. Students welded the metal together to make many different things, such as mailboxes. The teachers seemed to be an inspiration to students as well. "Coach T.'s the bomb," stated Senior John Schanz.

Communications and TV Production

For some, the thought of being in front of the class with everyone's attention on them is a more frightening thought than any nightmare. They start sweating and swallowing hard to force the words out, all the while staring down to avoid looking a classmate in the eye. Communications class was a dreaded class for these individuals, but it helped. This class got that fear out of everyone. At the end of the semester, every student saw at least a little improvement in themselves. They felt more at ease and comfortable up in front of the class, speech after speech. The big assignment of the semester was the Mock-Interviews. Students went to a business of their choice and had the opportunity to get experience in a job interview. A lot of the students were actually able to receive real jobs from this assignment.

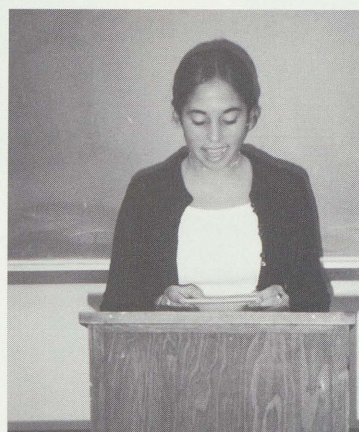

TV Production gave those students wanting a career in broadcasting a chance to test their skills. They learned how to use the equipment so they could act as movie producers and directors. They also did a little acting of their own as they made info-commercials and small skits. Maybe we will be seeing their names on the big screens in our futures!

The foreign languages at Heritage this year were French, Spanish, German, and Latin. The biggest event that the four classes participated in was Carnival, also known as Foreign Language Week. During Carnival, the classes, as well as the rest of the school, had fun participating in the various activities. On Joke Day, students and teachers exchanged jokes, and students guessed how many beads were in a jar outside the library. On Mask Day, teachers wore masks and glasses that foreign language students had made for them. During Tie Day, the women at Heritage had an opportunity to participate in an old German tradition by cutting off the ends of mens' ties. The final event for the week was the Pancake Eating Contest. A student representing each foreign language class competed against other students to eat as many pancakes as possible. The person who ate the most in the amount of time allowed, won the contest. Overall, Carnival was an event enjoyed by students and teachers alike.

Health Education

Learning to take care of yourself and to aid others was a graduation requirement at Heritage. Health and Parenting classes were offered to teach students certain life skills. Health taught first aid, substance and alcohol abuse, and other related topics. During the C.P.R. session, students used dummies to practice their life saving skills. Parenting was not required, as Health was, but many students took the class. Students learned how to take care of children, and they learned about eating habits as well. Students also made their own babies out of flour and sugar bags, and they had to take care of them as if they were real babies. Both classes taught students things they can use for the rest of their lives.

Physical Education

Wendy Elliott falls to the ground, breathless from a strenuous workout in Aerobics class.

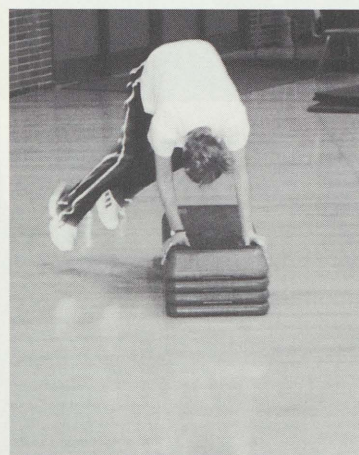

Classes weren't limited to sitting and doing bookwork. There were three classes offered to those students who didn't feel like doing the same old classroom work. Students could take gym, conditioning, and/or aerobics. Gym was basic intermural sport games while Conditioning focused on building muscles and toning the body. Aerobics did a lot of physical activities such as water aerobics, step aerobics, and working out in the weight room. Conditioning was most popular among the guys while Aerobics was mainly taken by the girls. Yet, all three classes served the same purpose: to make you as buff and as good looking as possible!

Marketing

Student employees and customers have had some pretty crazy things happen to them while wandering through the school store, which was run by Mr. Graham's marketing classes. Some examples of crazy things that have happened in the store are:

Someone burned his hands while making cookies.

People tried to come into the store when it was closed, and ran away scared when employees yelled at them.

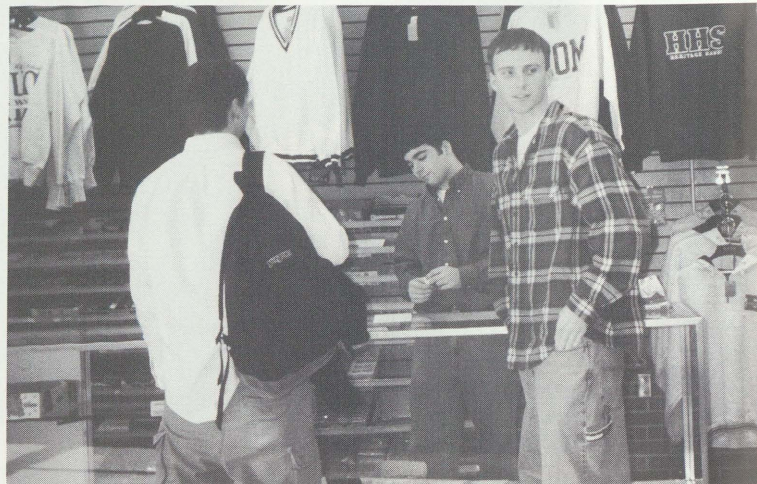

Someone sat in a chair and fell through it.

Someone left, and took the wrong bookbag.

Employees hide peoples stuff in a hole in the ceiling.

Someone put his bookbag in the wrong spot, and an employee threw it out the door.

The school store may have closed for the summer, but when it opens next year, it is sure to have more crazy things happen.

Band

Students and staff at Heritage can be very proud of The Marching Hawks for many reasons. With their dedicated rehearsals everyday after school to their far away competitions, our Band had a great year filled with numerous accomplishments. They started the year off attending Band Camp during the summer, which allowed them to have fun while preparing for their first performance. Next came Football season, filled with screaming fans and cold weather, which members of Band braved to provide our school with entertaining half time shows. The Marching Hawks also attended several competitions throughout the year. Their program, "The Light Eternal," earned them seventh in the state at a competition held in the Silverdome. Some of the schools that they competed against were Novi, John Glen, Durand, and Alwood. Both the students and staff of Heritage applaud the Marching Hawks and look forward to a terrific 1999 - 2000 season. Great job Band!

Forensics

Hard work, creativity, and a lot of talent went into making the Forensics team succeed this year. They sent five members to a state competition to represent the performing talent found here at Heritage. The state qualifiers included, Chris Barkham for prose, Travis Boswell for Dramatic Interpretation, Martin Kettling for Prose, Valerie Lenz for Sales, and Anne Talbot for Oration. To finish up the season, the Forensics team put on their Second Annual Forensics Fest. This gave the team members a chance to showcase their talents for all to enjoy.

Students who took debate learned the skills needed to conduct a meaningful argument. They learned that every argument must prove a point and be productive in order to win the debate. "It would be really fun if it weren't for the tough judging," stated Junior, Adam Lincoln.

Choir

While walking through the halls of Heritage you might have heard the sweet melody of the three different choirs; Hi-Fis, Mixed Ensemble and Varsity Choir. Hi-Fis consisted of Freshmen girls who were not involved in competing. Mixed ensemble was made up of Junior and Senior girls who visited retirement homes and participated in several competitions. Varsity Choir was made up of boys and Junior and Senior girls. Their voices took them to many places where they were able to show off their talent. The Mixed Ensemble and Varsity Choirs attended a major competition in Chicago at the end of April to wrap up their year.

Theater

Hours of hard work, talented actors and actresses, a great director, and lots of help from a crew of students, teachers, and parents all went into making this years drama productions great. There were two different plays this year. The fall play was "Much Ado About Nothing" and the spring play was "The Sound of Music." These two plays gave our acting talent here at Heritage a chance to share their skills with the public.

For many of the actors and actresses this provided them with a start towards a professional career.

The Orchestra had a great time this year. In preparation for festival, the Heritage Orchestra took a road trip traveling all of the way to Toronto. There, they worked with a college instructor and were able to learn many different strategies about playing music. They learned a lot more music pieces and were able to entertain, which is what they love to do the most. They practiced hard to learn and improve.

Their trip to Toronto wasn't complete practice time though; they were allowed to have some fun too. They sure deserved it. While there, the orchestra was able to see "The Phantom Of The Opera," visited the CN Tower and had a lot of free time to get to know each other and have fun. In the mist of all of the fun, their minds were not too far off from their music because they were able to pull together for a great performance at festival! Their solo and ensemble groups did very well and they were represented at states with tremendous talent.

Student Life

Homecoming

Homecoming '98 began with many preparations and support from the whole community. Spirit week began on Monday, along with a memorable Court Assembly held in the Vasher Theater. Students showed their school spirit in class competition by wearing hats, stripes, college apparel, and Heritage apparel. The traditional bonfire was held on Thursday in the North lawn. Friday, October 9, 1998, was the long awaited day full of parade festivities, the football game, and the crowning of the King and Queen. The Homecoming Parade, "On Broadway," set a record with 92 entries. Over 10,000 spectators from the community watched the parade to make it another memorable event. King Jamie Torres and Queen Trisha Zizumbo were announced during half time.

The Homecoming Dance, "Masquerade," was held on Saturday, October 10, 1998. The dance also set a record with 1,167 people attending the fun-filled night. School spirit continued throughout Homecoming Week, and the memories will last a lifetime.

Mr. Heritage

The 1999 Mr. Heritage took place on Thursday, April 22. The contestants were Deno Anagnost, Chris Barkham, Travis Boswell, Todd Eddy, Nick Fechter, Brad Frazier, David Griffus, Genesis Israel, Dave Lauka, Jon Lee, Ryan Little, Joe Pacek, Jeff Puszykowski, Ryan Sanford, Noah Stange, Chad Thompson, and Drew Tyner. There were different categories which allowed these contestants to show off their stuff. The guys strutted across the stage in beach wear, casual wear, and formal wear, and although the audience loved these categories, the favorite was the talent portion of the show, where the guys showed people their talents and skills. Things turned more personal later as the guys answered questions about themselves. After the questioning was over, the Top 5 finalists were chosen to answer a final question, which determined the winner. This year's Mr. Heritage title was presented to Brad Frazier! Other winners included: 1st Runner-Up, Travis Boswell, 2nd Runner-Up, Jon Lee, Best Legs, Drew Tyner and the People's Choice Award went to Jeff Puszykowski.

Spring Break

From hot beaches to late nights, and nice tans to outrageous sites, Spring Break was one of the students most memorable experiences of their high school social lives. Some of the students went on vacation with their families. Many ventured out on their own with friends. One of the most popular vacation sites year after year has been Panama City Beach, Florida. The vacation hot spot for the senior class this year was Cancun, Mexico. Students spent their days laughing on the beach, swimming, jet skiing, and other fun activities. Night time was spent going to parties and getting together with friends who were down there, too. Despite the variety of locations, everyone seemed to have a great time on Spring Break.

Prom

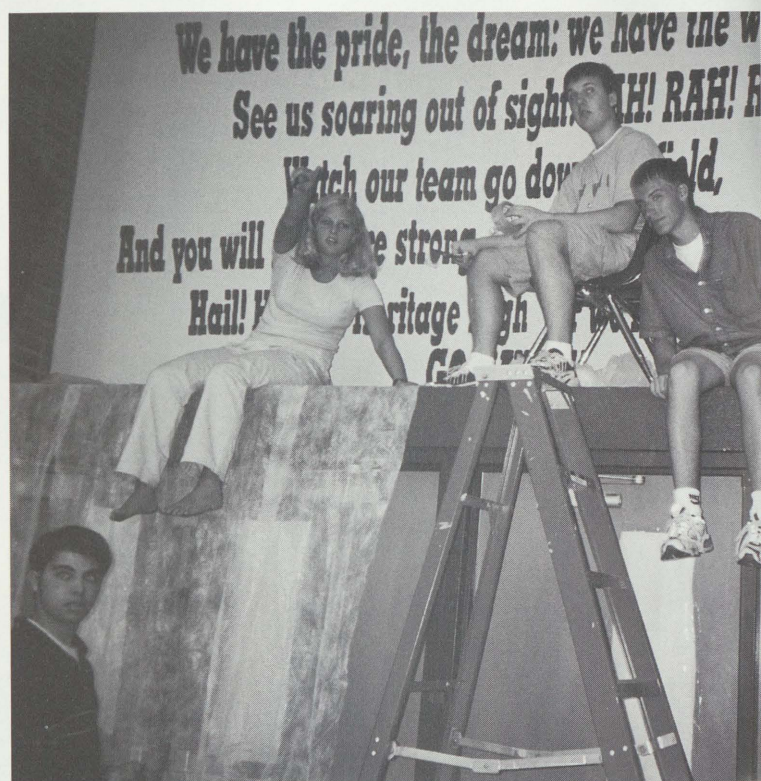

May 8, 1999 was one night that many Juniors and Seniors will never forget; a night that they will always look back on with fond memories. The Juniors dedicated many long hours decorating and fundraising to make the night perfect. After a lot of thought and consideration, they finally decided on the theme, "A Secret Garden." The Heritage gymnasium then began to be transformed into a fairytale land for the occasion. Students and the public came to look at the wonderful transformation the Juniors set out to create. It was hard to recognize the gym and halls of Heritage as they were covered in decorations, complete with paper rose name cards, white picket fences and many flowers. The Juniors did a great job with setting the theme for the night.

Students showed up, looking their best and participated in their night to remember. After getting pictures taken and finding their friends, students headed downstairs to show off their best dance moves. They busted a move all night to the music presented by the "Dancin' Machine." Every once in awhile a crowd would form around a very brave individual trying some new crazy moves. Everyone seemed to have the time of their lives surrounded by their dates and friends, which for Seniors, would be their last dance altogether.

At the end of the night, each couple recieved a gift bag filled with a memory booklet and a photo album. Many Seniors agreed it was a night to remember as their last dance came to an end, while Juniors looked forward to next year's prom.

Spring Fever

Sunburns, laughs, friends, and fun were all part of Spring Fever 1999. Thursday, May 20, was set aside for staff and students alike to spend the day outside participating in activities. Some of the activities that were offered included, Softball, Iron Man Relay, Sidewalk Drawings, Balloon Toss, Soccer, Hockey, Three-Legged Race, Gutz Frisbee, Tug Of War, Walker Shuffle, and Tennis. Students who participated, took these activities very seriously and showed their dedication to winning for their class. The Freshmen participated in their first Spring Fever with great enthusiasm, but could not compete with the raging spirit of the Juniors and Seniors. The Sophomores gained ground and respect, earning more points than the Freshmen, but they too were stopped by the upperclassmen. Students weren't the only ones who participated in Spring Fever, however. Staff members had a chance to compete as well. Students took on the staff in Tug Of War, Iron Man Relay, and students and staff also had a bit of fun with water balloons. Let's not forget Mr. Dehne, the play-by-play announcer in the press box. Overall, the Seniors grabbed first place, Juniors stole second, Sophomores earned a respectful third place, and Freshmen took last. All in all, Spring Fever 1999 was a huge success and was enjoyed by all.

Class Competitions

Class competition is a major part of the fun here at Heritage High School. Some competitions include penny week, the scavenger hunts, Homecoming events, spring fever, and various weekly competitions. Students are greatly encouraged to participate because the class with the most points earns a day at the beach. Usually, the Seniors dominate but this year it was a close call with the Freshmen.

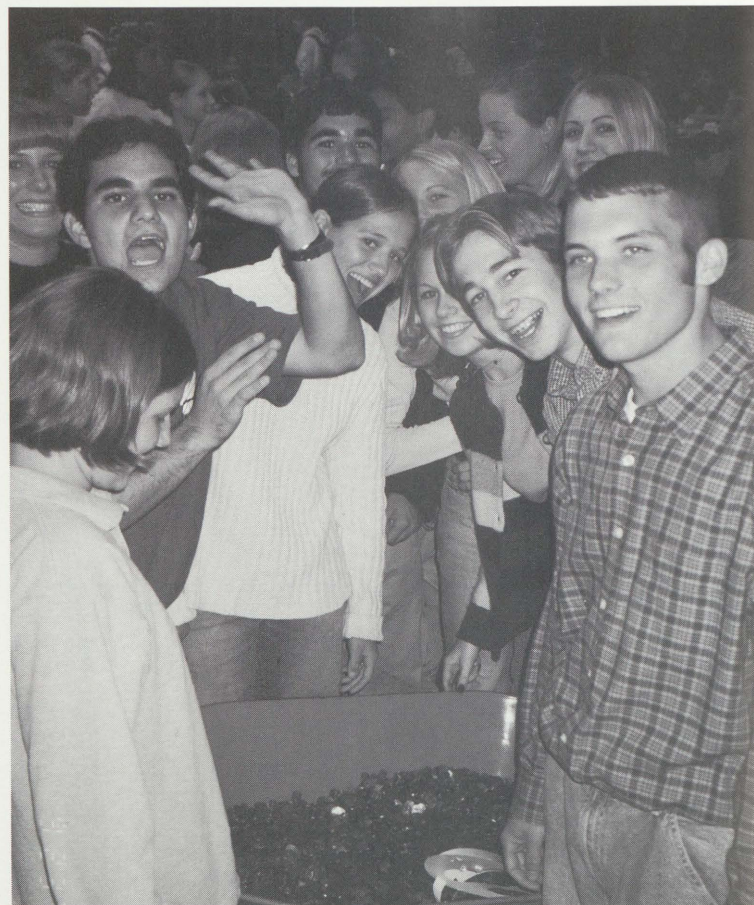

In the last few years we have seen decline in class competition participation. Hopefully, participation will increase in future years because nothing beats a day at the beach.

Pancake Breakfast

Cool Prizes!

Becky Luth and Dana Shaw hand out prizes at the Pancake Breakfast.

On April 23, the Pancake Breakfast was held to recognize students who had made meaningful contributions to Heritage and had followed the Heritage Code of Respect. Each staff member was allowed to nominate two students to attend. If teachers wanted to nominate more than two students, they could ask for more sheets to fill out. Nominees include students who filled a leadership position, performed a meaniful service, or consistantly displayed behavior that exemplified the code of respect. It was not intended to recongize academic or athletic achievements. The students that were chosen for this event were very deserving of this recognition and were presented with some very special prizes. All of the staff and students that helped to make this event possible were greatly appreciated. To keep Heritage the wonderful place that it is, we must recognize those students that really strive to make a difference.

Game of Life

The second annual Game of Life was held in the spring at Heritage High School. The Game of Life gave students the opportunity to experience common stereotypes and disabilities. Each Student was given a code that was worn around the students neck on a piece of cardboard. The code represented the students gender, ethnicity, financial status and age. Each student had to try to find a job, a house, and money to buy food. The students were treated according to a common stereotype associated with their given social class. Volunteers at each station could send students to the back of the line or refuse to serve them because of their differences. Then each participant went back to their classes to share their experiences and what they had learned with their classmates. Senior, Stephanie Keck stated, "It is an interesting experience and it made me look at how diversity is portrayed in our society." Student Assembly plans to continue the Game of Life in upcoming years to teach students how to deal with different stereotypes.

Girls Basketball

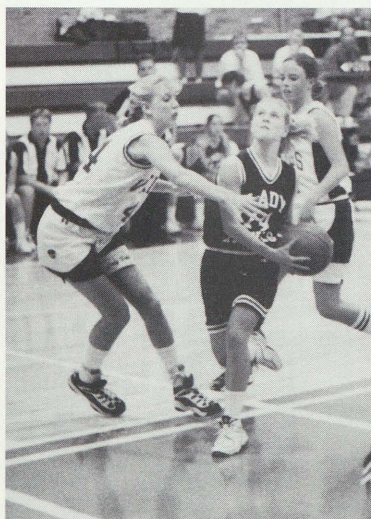

Back in Blue

The Girls basketball program had a very successful year. All three teams showed a great deal of improvement throughout the season. Varsity led the way with a 14 -8 record, followed by the Junior Varsity record of 11-9, and with a record of 7-13 the Freshman showed that they were ready to step up to the next level.

The Girls Varsity basketball team had an outstanding, yet heartbreaking season. They started the season off with a 4 -0 record, including a conference win over Arthur Hill. The Lady Hawks then went on to win the Township Times Tip Off Tournament in their first year of entry. The tournament included a big win over Nouvel. Heritage did not stop early on, however. They then ran all over Saginaw High in their pre-district game with a score of 81-59. The Lady Hawks fell to Arthur Hill in a thrilling district game losing 63-61 on a last second two-pointer by Arthur Hill. Led by Seniors, Jaime Reed, Erin Johnson, Allison Neuenschwander, Libby Kelly, Trisha Zizumbo, and Jessica Esparza, the girls showed that basketball was back at Heritage. Junior Emily Damuth, Freshman Brooke Meunier, and other young talent proved that they would be here to stay for many seasons to come.

Hockey

Welcome To The Show

This year the Hawks put a show on ice for their fans finishing with a hard fought record of 8-16-1. Heritage started the season off on a high note with a 4-2 victory over Port Huron. The Hawks continued to melt the ice by beating Bay City, Cadillac, and Clio. After falling to Midland, the Heritage icers rebounded to beat Linden by a score of 5-3.

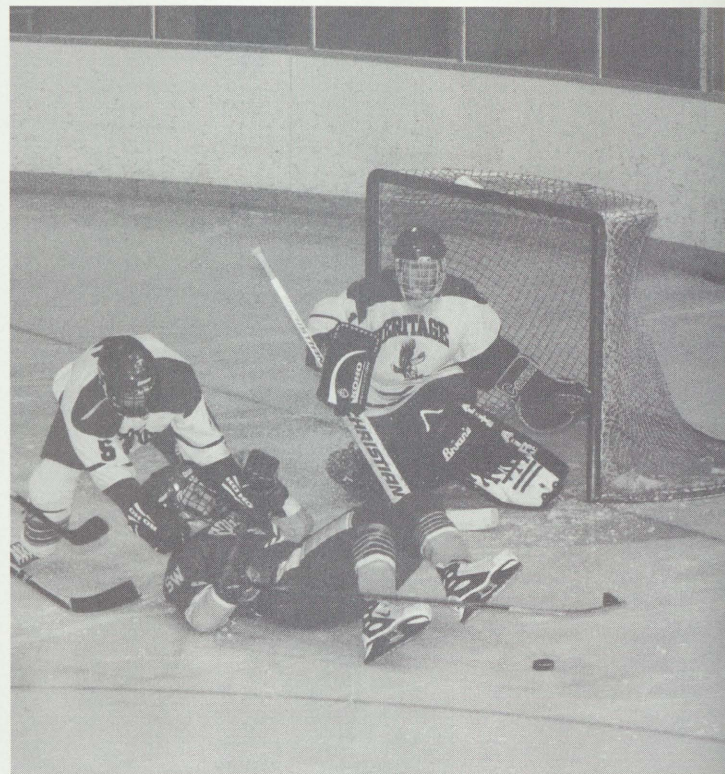

As the season melted down, Heritage came ready to play with wins over Davison, Cadillac, and a tie against Flint Southwestern Academy. In their last regular season match, the Hawks played a hard nosed game against rival Nouvel Catholic Central. After three periods of superb hockey, Nouvel barely slid by Heritage with a 2-1 victory. In districts, the Hawks fell to highly ranked Midland Dow, who were too much to handle, losing by a score of 4-1.

Senior captains, Ben Randall and Matt Tarrant, led the show this year, while Matt Jerome, Brandon Ittner, and many others provided a spark on offense. Andy Egerer was honored with many awards, winning team M.V.P. and receiving second team all-valley honors in his first year of high school hockey. Other team award winners included, Corey Rose, Most Improved Player, Adam Lincoln, Heart award, and Jon Lee, Carelli Scholarship.

After a long season, the Heritage icers finished off strong with an excellent effort against two highly ranked teams. If the cast of returning underclassmen can continue where the team left off next year, the show on ice will definitely be a treat.

Heritage then had a devastating loss to Flint Northern, but came back strong leaving Flint Central in the dust, 61 to 18. The Hawks next victim was Midland High beating them by a score of 69-15. Heritage then went on to place eighteenth at the Heritage Invite with an impressive score of 474. They followed this up with a win over Midland Dow (58-17) and a seventh place showing in the Saginaw Valley League Meet. In the final competition of the year, The County Meet, the Hawks finished in ninth place.

Led by Jay Patton, Troy Fisher, Laurie Caird, and Laurie Vance, the Cross Country team had an impressive year. Finishing with a record of 7-4.

Girls' Swimming

Perfect

This year the girls' swimming and diving team continued their dual swim meet winning streak to a perfect 43-0. On average they defeated their opponents by a score of fifty points. Heritage extended two more streaks with their sixth consecutive Saginaw Valley League Title and their fourth consecutive Tri-City Championship Title. They also showed a great performance at the Heritage Relays by finishing in second place. The season included some major wins over Fenton, Bay City Central, Bay City Western, and Flint Powers.

Tamara Carty took center stage this year, along with captains Cody Denton, Megan Bidgoli, and Cissy Burns. Coach Bob Oliver also recieved some well-deserved recognition by winning the "Coach of the Year" award at the Saginaw Valley League meet. Carty became a state champion as she ruled the 100 meter Butterfly, and received a "Swimmer of the Year" award at the Saginaw Valley League meet. The Swimming Officials Association honored her with the "Raymond A. Hart Award," which is given to the top female swimmer or diver in Saginaw. Carty also set two new area records in the butterfly, with a time of 57:83 and in the distance event with a time of 5:04.34.

The Lady Hawks had an outstanding showing in the State meet with many swimmers attending. Juniors, Meredith Snook, Melissa Borja, Kim Smith, and diver Dana Shaw contributed to making the Hawks season perfect. With this talented class of swimmers and divers returning to the pool next year, as well as many others, Heritage will be back for another strong season.

FOOTBALL

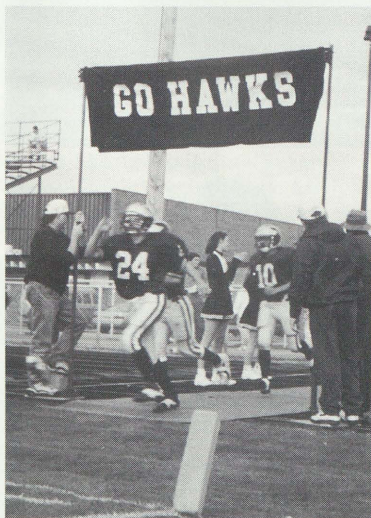

Homecoming Game Proves Heritage Football Is On the Rise

It was a classic game. Heritage and Flint Southwestern's scores were close throughout the game. Flint had the advantage with a lead of 21-22; then the game came down to the last few seconds. What happened at the end will no doubt go down in history as one of the greatest games ever played by Heritage. In front of a huge Homecoming crowd, Stu Sweigert threw a 40 yard touchdown pass to Steve Meyer in the end zone with just four seconds left in the game. He caught the pass and the crowd went wild. The Hawks were already celebrating in the end zone when they were rushed by a crowd of screaming fans. The team won the game with a final score of 27- 22.

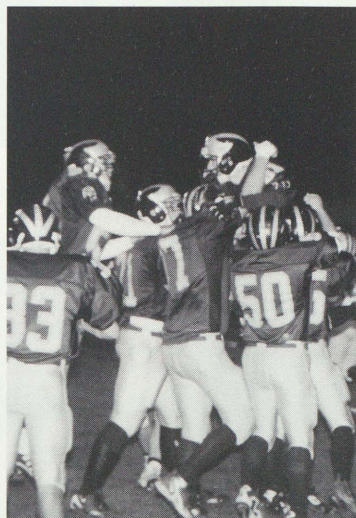

Unfortunately, not all of the games had a fairy tale ending for the Hawks. The team showed great improvement and is expected to shine next year. They finished off the year with a 4 - 5 record. Junior Varsity had a 3 - 6 record. And let's not forget about those Freshmen who had an undefeated year with an eye-opening 9 - 0 record. Next season should be very exciting and successful for Heritage football.

Skiing

25Years of Excellence

After 25 years of coaching Richard Williams is calling it quits. His Girls Varsity ski team finished the season off with a solid 5-4 record. The Lady Hawks also gave a successful show in their tournaments. Heritage received an amazing first place in the Apple Mountain Invitational. In the Cadillac Invitational they earned fourth place, and tied for fourth in a tournament at Mt. Holly. They finished the season off with an impressive eighth place at Mt. Holly in the State Region Competition.

George Peet has set the boys Varsity ski team on their winning way. They finished the year with an excellent 12-2 overall record and a 6-2 conference record. The boys team also had an outstanding tournament record. They received a first place in the Apple Mountain Invitation and a fourth place in the Cadillac Invitation. In regional play the Hawks flew down the slopes to an amazing fourth place. They also earned a three way tie for second place, and had two individuals qualify for state finals.

For both teams, boys and girls, the Hawks completed a successful season. The captains, Sarah Wilcox and Emily Hegler for the girls, and Grant Hilger and Ryan Diesler for the boys, lead their teams to many victories. Even though the ski teams will be losing an extraordinary coach and many talented seniors, the Hawks will return strong next season. They have high expectations for upcoming skiers who will be sliding their way past next year's opponents.

Pom Pon Kicks Their Way To The Top

The Heritage Pom Pon Squads started its season with incredible motivation. Coming off a fourth place year, the Heritage Varsity Squad were ready to work hard to achieve their goal of placing higher than the previous year.

The Varsity Squad started practicing in early June for their trip to camp which was scheduled for late July. Co-captains Jenny Quackenbush and Erin Hartl had their hands full for Traci Hammis, the coach was pregnant and due in September. Camp was nearly flawless and the girls ran away with a Grand Champs trophy, a first place in Senior Kickline, the award for best showmanship, and the Peppy Pom award. The J.V. Pom Pon Squad also got the Grand Champs trophy, and the Showmanship award.

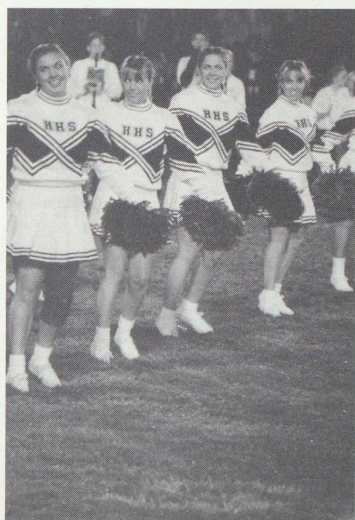

The year was off to a great start. The girls performed at The Homecoming Parade and game. They decided for the first time that they would like to compete in the High Kick competition. They practiced day in and day out and recieved a sixth place, only two points away from first.

The next obstacle for the Varsity girls was Regionals and finally State Competition. Regionals was held at Heritage High School and the girls performed beautifully. They were pumped for State, now knowing that the first place ribbon was achievable. the girls performed last of the whole day, after their rivals Novi, Canton, and Churchill. The girls routine was performed flawlessly and they were awarded a second place. The J.V. squad also performed well receiving third place. Even though they didn't win, the girls knew they had done their best. They truly were State Champs at heart.

Boys Soccer

Bumps, Bruises, and Overtime Wins

Heritage soccer means dedication and hard work. This year with a 12-6-3 overall record and an 8-1-0 league record the dedication and hard work payed off. After a dissapointing loss to Carmen Ainsworth, the season opener, the Hawks came back strong. They went 6-0-2 before their next loss.

Soon after defeating Arthur Hill the Hawks entered their pre-district game. Heritage rolled over Flint Central (1-0) and then sat Arthur Hill down for the season (4-3) in a fierce overtime battle. The season ended with a devastating 3-2 overtime loss to long-time rivals, Carmen Ainsworth.

Leading this years Hawks were Senior captains, Todd Simon, Geoff Laflair and Junior captain Derold Sligh. Todd Simon and Derold Sligh led the team with fourteen goals each. Simon received second team All-State and Sligh received an All-State Honorable mention. Jerry Macknowski, Geoff Laflair, Todd Simon, Derold Sligh, and Chad Simon were placed on the All -District team. Although not every member of the team was recognized as these select few, the entire team contributed to an outstanding season.

The Freshman and Junior Varsity teams also had a successful year. The Junior Varsity team finished with an even 6-6-3 record while the Freshman team finished with a record of 4-12-2. Both teams showed improvement by the end of the year. Overall, soccer at Heritage truly kicked some grass!

Cheerleading

The cheerleading program started in early August when all three squads attended a Cheer Michigan summer camp. At camp they learned new cheers, chants, and stunts. This year the Varsity squad was awarded the "Mega Improvement Award" for working together to improve their skills. The Varsity squad got an opportunity to show off those skills at the football kick off party organized by the Touch-down Club.

The Cheerleading program had a new addition this year. The Varsity squad was privileged to have a former Heritage cheerleader, Kate Spaulding-Wilder, come back to coach. She came to us with fresh new ideas and a great attitude.

The Varsity team started the season off with a bang, winning four of their first five games, including a win over rival Midland High. The Hawks defense was on top of their game holding Midland's offense to a measly 37 points. They then went on to beat Bay City Central and Swan Valley in two nail biters. In the game against Bay City, Heritage won in the last few seconds on a tip in by Adam Cole. The Hawks also ran strong against Swan Valley and "hung" on for a two point victory. Another high point in the season came for the Hawks in a game against highly ranked, Flint Southwestern. Heritage pushed themselves to overtime where they fell short 71-69.

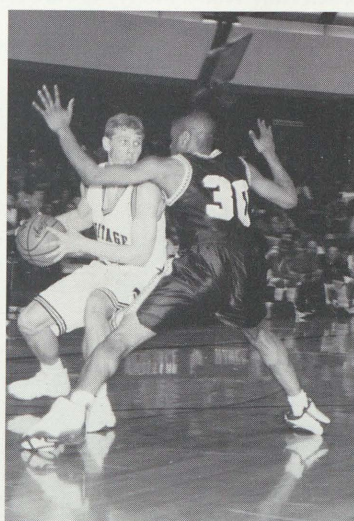

In Districts, the Hawks and their fans showed up ready to play. They sat Clio down for the season with a 58-50 victory. Following a Flushing upset over Saginaw High, the big match up was set. Arthur Hill came to our "Hawks Nest" to face the Hawks in the second round. Heritage played hard and stayed close until Jason Richardson and Arthur Hill were too much to handle in the second half.

The Hawks ended the season on a strong note. Blake Pratt made Second All-Valley Team, while Todd Simon and Derold Sligh both received an Honorable Mention in the Valley. With a core of returning underclassmen, Heritage's future looks promising.

Clubs and Organizations

Clubs At Heritage Keep Members Busy

Trips, group activities, and community service are a few of the things that the clubs at Heritage High School have to offer. French/Spanish Club was especially active this year. They traveled to Quebec City and Lansing. They watched a production of Beauty and the Beast and went shopping at Somerset Mall. Other clubs that helped to get their members involved were the National Honor Society and Leadership. Leadership sponsored a food drive to help the less fortunate, while the National Honor Society members dressed in costume in their second annual Halloween party for the local elementary students. One other foreign language club had an educational year for its members. The German Club took a trip to Ann Arbor to a German concert and then later in the year visited the Holocaust museum in Detroit. Between trips, projects, and all of the group activities members of Heritage High School Clubs are never bored.

Heritage Youth Providing Enthusiasm

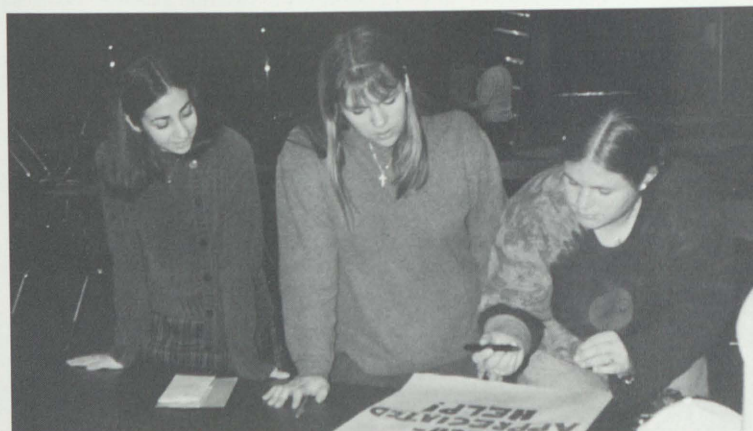

HYPE started early this year by having meetings in August to regroup and organize for the upcoming school year. The first project that HYPE took on was creating the Happy Hawk and placing one in every room trying to boost school spirit. School spirit is what HYPE is all about. They hung up signs in the student center announcing sporting events and congratulating people on a job well done.

Paint pens for HYPE have been a wish for a while, and with a donation from the Athletic Association, it became a reality. After the pens arrived, HYPE exceeded in providing more encouragement for Heritage.

New Group At HHS Lends A Hand

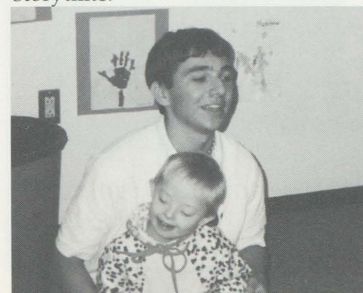

Helping Hands was a new group at Heritage High School this past year. It provided students with an opportunity to work with special needs students at Sherwood Elementary School. The group met on Wednesdays in Mrs. Johnson's room and discussed activities to be used during their monthly visits to Sherwood along with ways of funding and expanding the project. A grant from FORCE allowed Helping Hands to take the Sherwood students on two field trips, and it also provided the group with enough funds to last through the next year. Commenting on Helping Hands, Junior Heather Bradfield says, "It's given me the opportunity to be a positive role model to those in need." Sarah Seeburger, also a junior, stated, "Helping Hands has given me a better understanding of special needs students." The program was opened to all students and provided its members with experiences that will never be forgotten. It was a truly unique program at Heritage and will hopefully continue helping special needs students in the future.

In the 1998-1999 school year the French/Spanish Club was possibly the most involved club in our school. The Club sponsored numerous trips for its members. They travelled to such places as Quebec City in Canada, Stratford, Ontario shopping at Somerset Mall and Cedar Point in June. The Club took its members to see several play productions like The Miser, a French play by Moliere, and Beauty and the Beast written by a French playwright. These plays and experiences with European native helped members to build a strong idea of how talented and creative many Europeans are.

A celebration of different cultures.

The Multi-Cultural Club's goal is to promote ethnic diversity and to make students aware of cultures around the world. During the school year, the Multicultural Club went to elementary schools, where they participated in ethnic activities that showed the style of dress, and students brought in food for that culture. The main event the Multi-Cultural Club focused on was the Culture Show. This year the Culture show featured a variety of acts. To start it off, Yolanda Davis sang the National Anthem. Next was German I's presentation of a German Wedding. They also sang the German National Anthem. Lim's Tae Kwan Doe class put on a show demonstrating some of their moves. Jenny Hubinger read a poem by Shel Silverstein and Natasha Moore sang the African American National Anthem. Greek and Indian dancers also performed for the audience. To close the night, after celebrating different cultures and customs, everyone enjoyed the food and refreshments served from different countries. The Multi-Cultural Club demonstrated that cultures can come together and trade their own customs and experiences with another. Learning about other cultures is the first step in respecting different cultures from our own.

Leadership

Leadership Class Helps Mold Young Leaders

The Leadership classes participated in many school and community activities throughout the year. Most of the students in Leadership were involved with Student Assembly or other school organizations. A requirement for the class is to complete thirty service hours each semester. In order to do this, the students co-chaired and worked on many activities. The fall semester focused on Homcoming, fall elections, Penny Week, a blood drive, UNICEF, a food drive, and the Millet Center holiday party. The spring semester focused on Data Match, Mock Rock, Spring Elections, two blood drives, the Celebration of Excellence Dinner, Pancake Breakfast, Matching Hearts, and the Game of Life. The Leadership classes also provided birthday announcements for the students at Heritage. One of the projects that each student was required to complete was an individual goal. The students worked on a goal throughout the semester along with reading a book that would benefit the student's goal. The Leadership course is designed for students to learn and practice leadership skills, and many benefited from the class.

NHS Lends A Helping Hand

The National Honor Society participated in many community activities directed towards helping others during the 98-99 school year. The members began by organizing a Halloween costume party for young children. The admission was a can good which was then taken to the Soup Kitchen. After arriving, little ghost and goblins with their treat bags in hand, followed the orange pumpkin signs to the small gym. They bobbed for apples, scored goals in the hockey shoot, and went fishing with the ducks in the pond. They all seemed to have an exciting time at the Halloween Party. The National Honor Society also donated money to a needy family in Russia. Members of NHS donated toys for Toys for Tots for their Christmas project. The National Honor Society brought smiles to many faces and they planned to continue more projects throughout the year.

Look Toward The Sky!

The 1998/1999 school year was a landmark year for Heritage's Astronomy Club. The group made plans to build the first club telescope. The only problem was their lack of sufficient funds, but they didn't let that slow them down. The group decided to ask Dow Chemical for a grant, which would cover the cost of supplies and other things for building the telescope, and members were elated when they learned they had been granted the money from the corporation. The club acquired supplies, space for building the project, and many dedicated volunteers. By second semester, the project was well underway. Volunteers met several times a week, helping and learning the construction process. Putting the telescope together was a tedious job, but the club's enthusiasm never died. They had persistence from the start of the project until the very end. Building such a large, technical device was a long process that the Astronomy Club can be proud of. It is a contribution to Heritage that will not be forgotten.

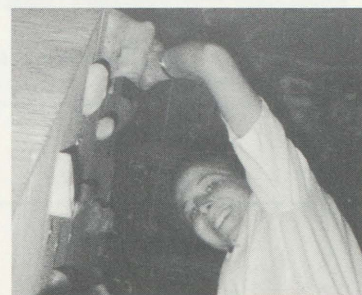

Outdoors Club

Members Climb to the Top

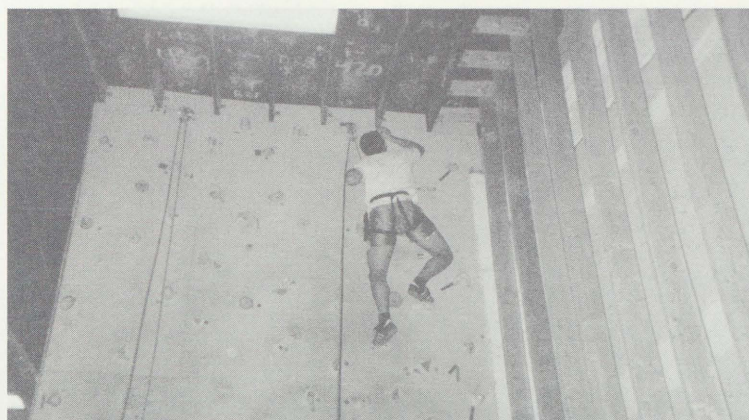

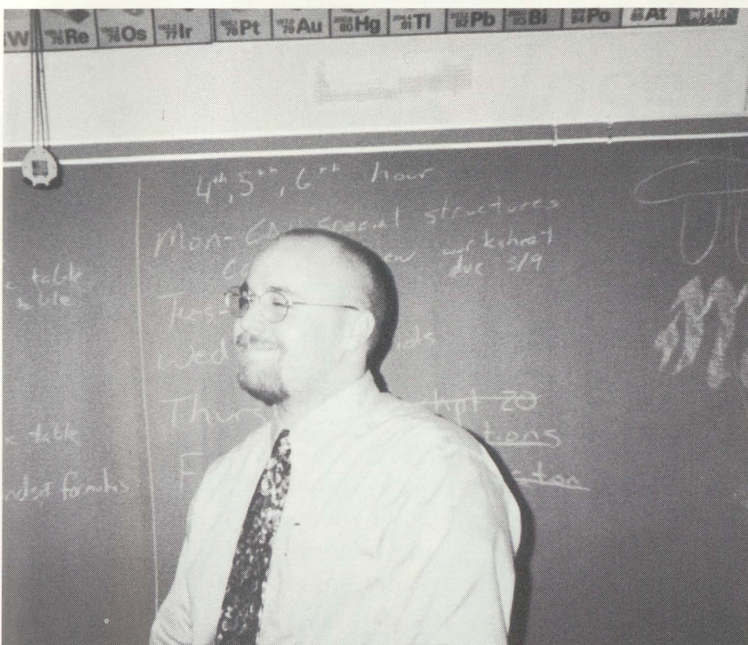

The Outdoors Club is one of the most popular organizations at Heritage, and was designed for students who have a love and appreciation for nature. Throughout the school year, the club held weekly meetings. One of the purposes for these meetings was to plan the second annual trip to an Ann Arbor indoor rock climbing gym. In the 1997-1998 school year, the climbing trip was one of the most popular ever, so students were very enthusiastic about planning a second trip during the last semester of the year. When the members arrived at the gym they were given detailed instructions on how to safely climb. Next, members were given their harnesses, and given a chance to practice on a small, beginner wall. When the members became comfortable with their climbing abilities, they were allowed to attempt any wall they felt ready for. After climbing for over an hour, the Outdoors Club left with sore muscles and a new knowledge of the sport. This trip finished out another successful year for Heritage's Outdoors Club.

S.A.D.D. Gets The Word Out

From announcements to key chains, Students Against Drunk Driving have found creative and interesting ways to inform students about the consequences of drunk driving. S.A.D.D.'s motive was to prevent student deaths from drunk driving and drug abuse. Every day of Homecoming Week, facts about drunk driving were on the announcements. "We had the most fun during the Homecoming parade," said Co-chair Sara Brown. At the Homecoming Parade, S.A.D.D. members used a wrecker and a smashed car to show what is possible while driving drunk. For Red Ribbon week, S.A.D.D. members tied red ribbons on all of the cars in the parking lot symbolic of the people who have died or been injured in a drunk driving accident. The members also had the "Grim Reaper," go around and take students out of the classroom. Returning wearing "Rest In Peace" t-shirts, the students represented those who have died in drunk driving accidents. "The video during Prom week really seemed to get across to students," said Co-chair Sara Brown. At the senior assembly, S.A.D.D. members presented the video along with key chains to the Senior Class. S.A.D.D. members have worked on a variety of projects this year, and believe their message made an impact on the student body of Heritage.

Latin

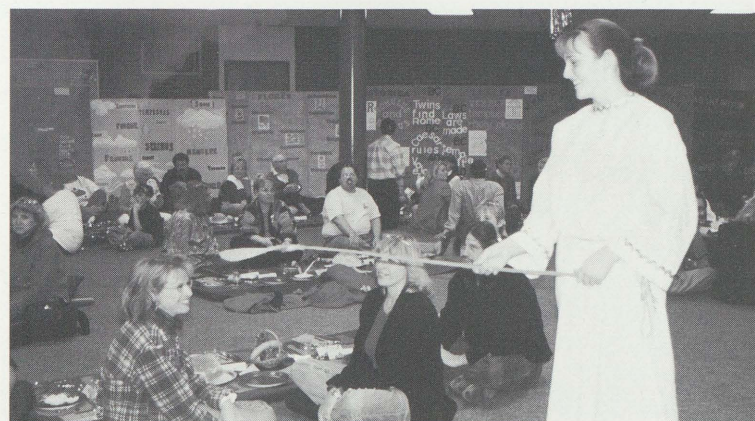

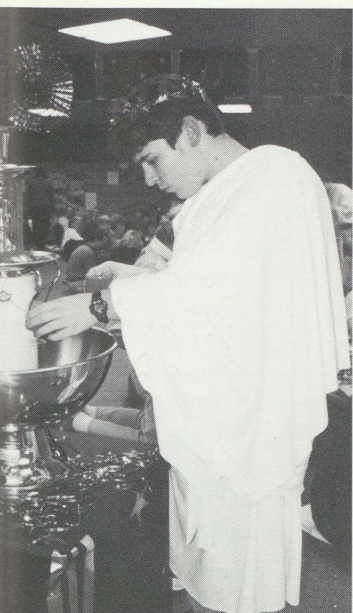

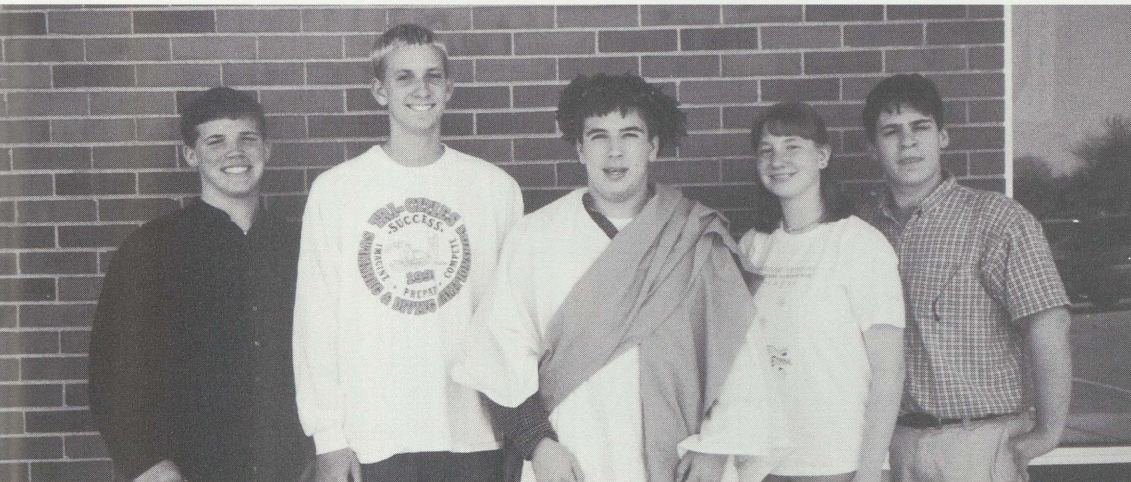

Members Learn About Latin Life

Latin is one of the most difficult languages to master. It takes intelligence and persistence. The Latin club at Heritage however, does not just involve the complicated language. The members are given a true taste for Latin culture also. They held functions that allowed members to learn what their language is about and how it evolved. This year the organization held a traditional Latin dinner for family and friends. The members dressed in white togas, and some were slaves who wandered the party allowing guests to wash their hands in large bowls, and others fanned guests with large wooden fans. Other members served the delicious food of the Latin culture. When the evening came to a close, members and guests of the dinner had a new taste for Latin food and culture.

This year, all 180 Heritage marketing students were members of DECA, a business organization that holds conferences for leadership training and chapter management as well as conferences for district and local, state, and national competition. These conferences are based on the DECA diamond: civic consciousness, social intelligence, vocational understanding, and leadership development. Winning a total of 79 medals at districts this year, Heritage DECA students also received the Platinum Level Membership Campaign Award, which is one of seven awarded nationally. Thirty Heritage students, more than any other school in the district, advanced to the state competition. All together, Heritage students won a total of 25 individual medals, and had four state finalists. Mike Betzold, Tina Choudhri, Sara Crouse, Erica Day, Brandon Ittner, Pamela McAfee, Jeff Mitchell, Chris Shay, and Greg Varnum were the nine national qualifiers who went on to Orlando, Florida to compete with other DECA members across the United States.

German Club was finally starting to grow into a notable group with many activities for its members. As in years past, they traveled to many destinations such as Frankenmuth and places like the Holocaust museum in Detroit. This year they added a special trip to see a native German singer perform for them at Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor. Using a plastic bag for a rap song, singer Gerhard Schone put on an awesome show for the club members. Seeing the Holocaust museum was one of the highlights for the advanced German Club members. They felt it was important to get a sense of the German history they had learned so much about. All the trips and experiences the German Club members had this year gave them a small taste of German life.

Student Assembly

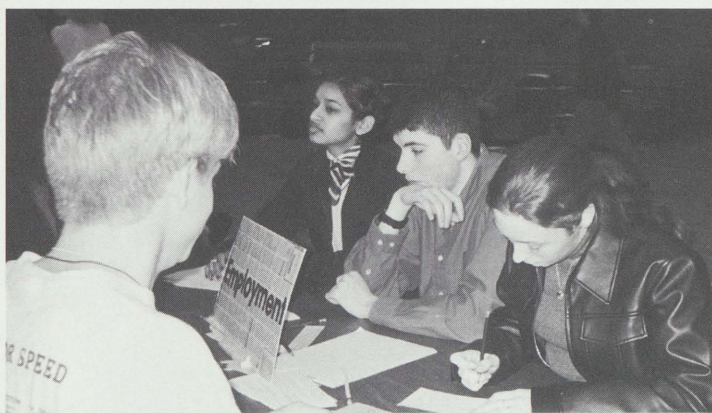

The Heart of Activities Lies in Student Assembly

Have you ever wondered who organized all the fun and exciting events at Heritage? The people that took on this large and rewarding task were the members of Student Assembly. The group organized many events this past year for both the student body and community. The food drive, organized by Student Assembly during first semester, provided non-perishable food items for Hidden Harvest, which gave the items to the less fortunate people of our community. At Christmas time, Student Assembly held a Christmas party for the students at the Millet Center, where students from both schools had an excellent time. As in the past, during second semester, Student Assembly held the Game of Life; a role playing game designed to teach students to become more aware of stereotypes. Student Assembly also hosted many other events throughout the year including the Amish Dinner, Mock Rock, the UNICEF Drive and Hartley Leadership Camp. All events proved that Student Assembly was a hard working organization and was often the backbone of Heritage activities.

JETS/Quiz
Team pull together.

The JETS Team competition was hosted by Heritage's top Math and Science students on March 12, 1999. Twenty-four students from Heritage participated along with students from Nouvel and Flushing High School. The students were given multiple choice timed test involving real world applications of engineering, math and science. The second set of questions involved more writing and was based upon information contained in the first part of the test. The tests of the top teams were sent to the National JETS headquarters for further evaluation. The HHS JETS Team placed 5th in the Nation. The students involved in the JETSTEAM were coached by Mr. Micheal Talbot. The Heritage High School Quiz Team was another team that pulled together to win a competition. The team consisted of Arash Mahajerin, Erik Schroppel, Justin Stahl, Tara Lynn, Kevin Kosanovich, Jeremy Evens, and Sean Gerrish. They won the Kiwanis Academic Olympics Tournament with four wins and one loss. The team was coached by Ms. Nacny Miller. Each team represented what Heritage students can accomplish when they work together.

Todd Eddy lays down the law.

Law Day Participants

Looking Professional
Todd Eddy, Laurie Vance, and Martin Kettling were lawyers for Law Day.

Go Laurie!
Laurie Vance argues with an actual lawyer while Brian Hill, Todd Eddy, and Cheryl Hanson watch in amazement.

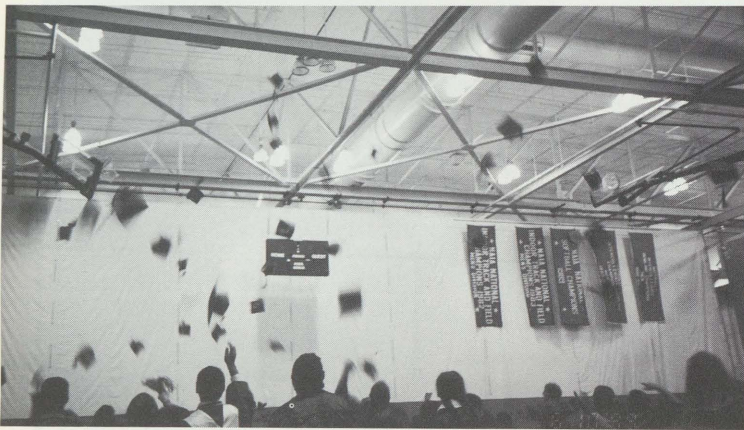

Students Get a Taste of the American Justice System

Law Day was offered to students going into law as a career. Students from Heritage held a mock trial at the Saginaw County Court House. They participated in many activities concerning the law procedures. First, they gathered three lawyers: Todd Eddy, Laurie Vance and Martin Kettling. Next, they chose witnesses, Brian Hill, Amanda Fry, and Allison Neuenschwander, and Cheryl Hanson was the defendant. The advisor, Miss Lee, contacted Rita Lauer, a true lawyer. She helped develop an excellent defense strategy for Law Day, which was incredibly stressful. Unfortunately, the prosecution dropped out of the demonstration. In place of them, two actual lawyers were chosen to compete against students. Although it was extremely difficult, students ended up with a non-guilty verdict on all 3 charges, and had a great performance.

Witnesses
Amanda Fry, Cheryl Hanson, Grandma Allison Neuenschwander, and Brian Hill act as witnesses on Law Day.
